

Junior Church at First Free Church

April 2006

Dear parents of
4th, 5th and 6th graders,

As First Free goes to two morning worship services, Junior Church will be held during each of the two services. As usual, the children will be dismissed in about the middle of the service to go to Children's Church and will be released when the service is over.

As much as is possible, the children's programs will be the same for each of the two services. (Of course, since the children are much more interactive than the adult generation, there will be different questions asked and different tangents pursued.)

We will attempt to continue with the curriculum that has been developed over lo these many years, preparing the kids to face the challenges of an increasingly dangerous world.

A new teacher joining Ross Olson and Mary Anderson — who have been doing this since shortly after the Flood of Noah, as far as we can recall — will be James Amstutz who is an experienced teacher in Sunday School and Boy's Stockade.

The Spring Hike will be coming up on June 3 and a separate letter will be sent regarding that semi-annual attack of insanity. Over the years, Mary and Ross have gathered a battalion of young and strong youth and adult volunteers, mostly to have enough litter bearers if Ross goes down.

If you have questions about any of this, call Ross Olson at 612-824-7691.

For Mary and James
