

The Menu of Speakers for Sunday, October 17th

Break out those Japanese chopsticks

Doug and Cheryl Conrad of ReachGlobal Japan will be speaking to the children, 4th – 6th grade at 9:30 and K – 3rd grade at 11:00

Doug grew up in Japan and both Doug and Cheryl are members of First Free. They have done music, children's and youth work and have been involved in church planting in Japan. Cheryl taught at an international School. Currently they are on an extended home leave and live across the street from First Free! They have three children, Christopher, Ben and Ohka. Don't let them leave without a demonstration of their savvy chopstick skills!

Get ready for a talk spicier than Korean kimchi!

Chuck & Sharon Steen will be speaking to Youth at 9:30 and Seniors at 11:00

Sharon (Wallstedt) Steen grew up at First Free. She and her husband Chuck have served with the Navigators since their marriage in 1970. After three years in Korea they returned to the US to serve in a local community ministry. They also serve internationally, through Co-Mission, helping Christians mature through Bible study, memory and personal discipleship training. From 2003 to 2007 they had a role on the leadership team of the International Student Ministry and from 2007 to the present they function on a team that concentrates on strategic human resource development in East Asia. Be sure to ask them how best to eat your kimchi.

Save Room for Dessert!

Have you smelled this fruit?

Heidi Tunberg, ReachGlobal will be speaking to Faithbuilders at 9:30 and Agape at 11:00

Heidi spent her childhood in Malaysia and Singapore where the durian fruit reigns as king of the stinky fruits. Heidi's parents were missionaries there with the Evangelical Free Church. After getting her MA in Counseling Psychology from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, she spent seven years in private practice as a therapist. With time, Heidi grew increasingly interested in the care of missionary kids (MKs), particularly those in high school and college, and in 1999 she accepted a position with the EFCA IM (now Reach-Global) providing care for MKs. Be sure to ask Heidi about her Durian encounters!

That's not a sweet potato! That's Cassava!

Julie Turnquist, Touch Global will be speaking to Living Life at 9:30 and to Makarios and Metamorphosis at 11:00

Julie received the Lord as her Savior at age 9 and dedicated her life to Christ's service at 12. From 1978-80 Julie taught in Zaire at the Ubangi Academy (UBAC), a school for missionary children. From 1985-91 she taught at Lycee Lua, a Zairian girls' boarding school and then from 1992-96 Julie returned to teaching missionary children at UBAC. In 1997 Julie began teaching 4th grade at Haven of Peace Academy (HOPAC) located in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania until 2005 when she joined the staff of TouchGlobal, the compassion ministry of the EFCA in September 2005. Now she's located at the Rockford Resource Center in Rockford, IL. Clearly Julie has seen some fascinating things but what we really want to know is just how does one cook a cassava plant anyhow?
